

Jason Albuquerque

Chief Operating Officer

With more than 20 years of experience in the technology field, Jason has served in numerous senior roles in his career, culminating in his current COO position with Envision.

Jason takes pride in leading the charge and in building a culture that is innovative and secure by design. He brings the highest levels of leadership, industry knowledge, and agility that modern industries require to effectively respond to the rapidly changing technology, threat, risk, and business landscapes.

Jason has received prestigious recognitions and awards in technology and leadership, including being named a "2021 Top Cybersecurity Leader" by Security Magazine partnered with (ISC), Rhode Island's 40 under Forty Award, and Rhode Island's Tech 10 Award. He is also a seven-time National Public Technology Institute Solutions Award winner.

Jason currently co-hosts the Business Security Weekly podcast and serves on Congressman Langevin's (Congressional Cybersecurity Caucus co-chair) Cybersecurity Advisory Committee, the Tech Collective Board of Directors, and the Rhode Island Joint Cyber Task Force.
